Simple Changes for Better Sleep

from the Wilde Lake Heath and Wellness Committee

Happy 2019! As we approach a new year, consider adopting some healthy habits, such as a good nights sleep. Here are some suggestions for ways to make your bedroom an environment that promotes a restful nights sleep.

- Remove the TV, computer and other mind stimulating blue-light emitting tech from bedroom
- Use room darkening blinds or window coverings to block external light
- Replace the matter every 10 years, pillows every 2 years
- Turn down the thermostat at night
- Keep a flashlight beside your bed so you won't need to turn on brighter lights.
- Make your bed every morning
- Bed down pets in a different room
