Update: Water Journey at Running Brook Pool

Columbia Aquatics is excited to bring the new Water Journey splash pad to Running Brook Pool! The recent severe storms and rain have delayed construction, but they're now aiming to open Water Journey up for your enjoyment on Wednesday, July 10. Running Brook Pool remains open while construction is underway. Water Journey is a unique playscape that calls upon the cognitive, social and motor skills of young children through a series of open-ended play events, including gates and wheels and side-by-side tracks.
