Chronicling Columbia's Resilience in a Pandemic - Together at a Distance:

We are living through history in the making — as such, our lives have shifted drastically. One way to feel connected to the community, even at a distance, is to share your thoughts and emotions. Help record and preserve stories of resilience by sharing your personal experience as a Columbia resident during the coronavirus outbreak. Please share your personal writing and testimony, artist renderings (i.e., poem, performance or visual artwork), photograph or brief video testimony with the Columbia Archive project, Chronicling Columbia's Resilience in a Pandemic — Together at a Distance. Columbia residents, family, and individual submissions are encouraged. Click here to participate.

Election Update 7th Congressional District

Election Information

In an effort to ensure social distancing and the safety of residents, the Maryland Primary scheduled for April 28th will now be postponed to June 2nd. The special general election for the 7th Congressional District will still be held on April 28 and will only be conducted through a vote by mail system. Ballots have been mailed out for the April 28 Special General Election.
